

The Elizabethan.

Vol. XIV. No. 16.

WESTMINSTER, JULY 1914.

Price 6d.

VALE.

IT has hitherto been the custom for an article entitled 'Vale' to appear in the last number of THE ELIZABETHAN for the School year. The exceptions to this rule have been when the Editor has not been leaving himself. If we make the exception the rule, and write 'Vale' with a pen that has many numbers yet to produce, it is with no disrespect for that amazingly revered 'precedent,' but with a sincere desire to abolish the curious selfishness that makes an Editor regard himself before his readers.

Life at one of our Public Schools has been described as 'a curious admixture of strenuousness and sentiment.' Life at Westminster, we hope, consists of the strenuousness without the sentiment. We are sorry if we have put a wrong construction upon the word 'sentiment' as used by the originator of the phrase in question, but it is quite certain that there is a great deal of the wrong kind of sentiment constantly appearing in the Public Schools of to-day. A notable example of this is to be seen in the 'Vale' leading articles of past years. With few exceptions, they have been full of weak reflections on the sorrows of leaving school, feelings which are unnatural and unusual in the ordinary type of boy. One is of course in a way sorry to leave, but that is so with most endings. There is a representation in Madame Tussaud's Exhibition of a French nobleman imprisoned for a very long period. When released, after years of miserable idleness and discomfort, he begged to be allowed to return. One felt just the same regret when leaving the preparatory school, but the anticipation of a fuller and more independent life amply made up for the slight reluctance at the parting. So it is in the case of leaving a public school. Anticipation of a changed manner of living outweighs the reluctance to close a period of ordered existence.

This sentiment is in a way ruining our public-school system. After centuries of monopoly, the Public Schools are being seriously rivalled by what we are pleased to designate as 'board schools or something of the sort.' It is a fact, as pointed out two years ago in these pages, that appointments to high positions on the qualification of Public School and University education are becoming rarer, and, when occurring, are arousing more and more indignation among what we are pleased to call 'the lower classes.' The business man no longer gives employment to the candidate for the post just because he has spent (often a meiosis) so many years at a Public School and University. It was so, and it is not so now. This is no socialistic propaganda, but we may perhaps be excused if we ask whether an attitude such as this is not after all a very natural one to adopt, seeing what type of person is being constantly sent forth from the Public School of to-day. Sentiment that regards the Public School as shrouded in a dreamy haze of sanctity endowing ipso facto the pupil with every good quality is common, and strenuousness, that originally gave our Public Schools their greatness, is going to the wall. 'Endure hardness' might be taken as the motto of the Public School of yesterday, and it is a curious fact that strenuousness is derived from the same root as the Greek στερεός, firm or hard. To-day a typical example of the converse of this motto can be seen in the objection only recently raised against corporal punishment in this school. Yes, it is indeed true that a distinct falling off in strenuousness is to be observed in our Public Schools, and Westminster is unfortunately no exception. We see this in many ways: to it are due many innovations of late, such as the necessity for Swedish Drill. We see the same slackness in the reluctance to come to Camp, and, if an improvement has taken place in this direction, it still remains painfully true that many are shirking what they know perfectly well to be their duty, and this slackness is very closely akin to that worst of mental attitudes, selfishness. And those who have had experience as recruiting sergeants will say that the fault in many cases lies not with the children as much as with the parents. It would be presumptuous, and we are well aware of it, to make any original statements as to parental responsibility but we will quote the words of the Headmaster of a very great Public School. 'Instead of simply asking themselves whether they are needed for their country's good, they occupy themselves in avoiding hardness, and fancy they are acting unselfishly in teaching their children to do the same.' And the Headmaster of what many of us like to think the greatest Public School of all has said on the same subject. 'Many excellent motives have combined to produce a gentler treatment of children than was customary in a former age, but a wise training of the young is more and more required as the national wealth increases and the responsibilities of Empire grow more onerous and complex. There are nowadays more temptations on the one hand and duties on the other, and laxity of character has become doubly serious.' No less alarming is the extraordinary selfishness attested to by those who come in contact with the Mission. This work and duty is carried on by a few outsiders and still fewer Old Westminsters, who are most unselfishly supporting a burden that ought to be and could be shared by scores of others.

And so we bid farewell to many of our readers. May those who have done service to the School in the past continue in their good deeds, and to those, and there are not a few of them, whose conscience accuses them of slackness here, we would earnestly appeal not to disgrace the School in the future, but to work together with their more worthy fellows to restore the fortunes of Westminster.

FLOREAT.

THE CONCERT, 1914.

MAY 29.

It is usually said of every school concert that it has reached a higher standard than that of the previous year, which itself was a marked improvement on its predecessor. The present writer is unable to concur with this—the general opinion in the present year—because he is unlucky enough to have missed the last three or four concerts; but he can well believe it to be true, for the performances have shown astonishing improvement since he last had the pleasure of hearing music up-School. The two most noticeable features this year were the wealth of instrumental talent—no fewer than four pianists and two violinists appeared and acquitted themselves most creditably—and what is far more important, the marked improvement of the choral singing. It is difficult to judge the singing of a chorus when they are accompanied by so heavy a force as a band of some twelve players, but whenever the chorus was given an opportunity they showed themselves off to such advantage that one longed to hear them unaccompanied in some old English madrigals; might we plead for some Morley or Gibbons next year? The tone of the basses and sopranos was too good to be always lost in the mixed sound of an orchestra.

To turn to individuals, O. I. Curry, J. C. W. Horne, and C. W. Sanders in the 'Rose Maiden,' and Horne again in his solo in the second part, showed themselves possessors of good voices, which a little more courage would have made far more effective. They must all put up a better fight against nervousness by holding their heads up and singing out without forcing. Mr. Gardner's pleasing voice is always much appreciated, and in the second part he was encored, giving Chaminade's 'Silver Ring.' Westminster is always proud of Mr. F. B. Ranalow, and justly so, for not every school can claim one of the finest English-speaking singers now before the public. His splendid tone and beautifully clear diction delighted everybody, and he was forced to add 'I was a pale young curate then' to his group, in Part II. Mr. I. T. Cownie, who had been helping in all the choruses, was also much appreciated in two songs by Willeby, and A. G. Pite, with unnecessary modesty, gave what we feel sure must be the shortest song in his repertoire.

The instrumental soloists are all to be congratulated on their excellent choice of music. Mendelssohn, Chopin, Debussy, and even Wieniawski are names which have a right to appear on the best programmes, and the audience at a school concert should expect the very best. J. C. Ainsworth-Davis has a fine clear tone, and its somewhat thin quality was well suited to the slow movement of the Mendelssohn Concerto; his encore piece, Gerald Walenn's 'Hunaoke,' was played with excellent technical skill. R. W. Stannard gave a good account of himself in Chopin's very difficult G minor Ballade, and M. A. Phillimore showed musicianly feeling in two pieces by Debussy, especially the beautiful 'Fille aux cheveux de lin.' H. A. Meyer has either had much experience in public performance or is possessed of a remarkable power of concentration. He was the only soloist whose nervousness seemed to leave him at the first note, and who took his audience straight to the meaning of his music. His technique needs improvement, but concentration such as his is an enviable possession. Mr. Hawley was, as usual, a tower of strength at the piano, and J. M. Kirkman and J. R. Brandon-Thomas gave a fine rhythmical performance of the Light Cavalry Overture, with the orchestra. Mr. Ranalow, who conducted, is very heartily to be congratulated both on the success of the concert as a whole, and especially on the achievements of the chorus, to the training of which he has given so much time and energy.

In conclusion, may it be humbly urged that so much talent should be practised and made use of more than once a year? There have existed more than once flourishing Glee Societies at Westminster, meeting once a week to practise madrigals, and occasionally giving short concerts up-School, managed entirely by boys, with suggestions and help from Mr. Ranalow. Here would be a chance for soloists to learn concentration, the 'art of performance,' and here the chorus could keep on improving, ready for the concert next year which must again show itself 'the best on record.'

PROGRAMME.

PART I.

Selection from 'The Rose Maiden' . . . . . F. H. Cowen
(By kind permission of Messrs. Boosey & Co.)

PART II.

1. OVERTURE . 'Light Cavalry' . . . . . Supplé
Pianists J. M. KIRKMAN and J. R. BRANDON-THOMAS.
2. PART SONG . Chorus from 'The May Queen'
'With a laugh as we go round' Sir W. S. Bennett
3. SONGS . . . . .
a 'Soul of Mine' . . . . . E. Barnes
b 'Heart of a Sailor' . . . . . Löhr
Mr. F. B. RANALOW, O.W.
4. VIOLIN SOLO . Mazurka in D Major . . . . . Wieniawski
H. A. MEYER.
5. SONG . . . . . 'O Heart of Mine' H. Clough-Leigher
A. G. PIFE.

6. PIANO SOLO Ballade in G Minor . . . Chopin
R. W. STANNARD.
7. SONGS a 'Phyllis has such charming graces' . . . Young b 'I love the jocund dance' . . . Quilter
Mr. G. GARDNER.
8. VIOLIN SOLO Concerto, Slow Movement . . . Mendelssohn
J. C. AINSWORTH-DAVIS.
9. SONG . . . 'Butterflies' . . . Corbett
J. C. W. HORNE.
10. PIANO SOLO a 'Passepied' . . . Debussy
b 'La fille aux cheveux de lin'
M. A. PHILLIMORE.
11. SONGS . . . a 'The Sandwich Man' . . . C. Willeby
b 'The Fortune Hunter'
Mr. I. T. COWNIE, O.W.
12. WESTMINSTER SCHOOL SONG . . . Sir J. F. Bridge
(Words by John Sargeant)

GOD SAVE THE KING.

ORCHESTRA.

1st Violins Leader	...	...	Mr. C. H. BRADBERRY
			Mr. G. STUTFIELD
2nd Violin	...	...	Mr. C. NEWTON
			Mr. L. BRANDON
Viola	...	...	Mr. F. G. HAMBLETON
Violoncello	...	...	Mr. J. G. HAMBLETON
Contra Bass	...	...	Mr. W. STREATHER
Flute	...	...	Mr. D. WOOD
Oboe	...	...	Mr. E. HORTON
Clarionet	...	...	Mr. J. EGERTON
Conductor—Mr. J. G. RANALOW
Accompanist—Mr. STANLEY HAWLEY

STEWARDS.

J. C. AINSWORTH-DAVIS	S. L. HOLMES
H. A. CARLESS	A. G. PITE
A. N. CHARLTON	R. W. STANNARD
C. A. CROW ( Hon. Sec. )	D. G. VEITCH

In Memoriam.

G. W. HAMEL.

(Lost in the North Sea, May 23, 1914)

In fog and tempest, by the storm-wind toss'd,
He perished—all his skill and courage vain;
Yet who shall say his memory is lost
Who died in striving for the whole world's gain?

The shifting billows laugh. They have their prey;
H'm who dared sail the unknown upper seas,
Dreaming he saw the dawn of that fair day,
When men should probe the stars and yoke the breeze.

We come, O stars, ye fiery points of time;
We come to know thy secrets, ancient sun;
However loud his ocean-knell may chime,
A glory that shall quicken is begun.
Shall we then weep, or with th' exultant wave
Flaunt the wide heavens that a man should's way
In fearful space and dare to set his grave
In dark green vaults with shrouds of bitter spray?
Haply a fisher by the white-rimmed land
Spied his great pinions skimming through the mist,
And stared at craft he could not understand
Plunging in seas of liquid amethyst;
And in that strange pulsation thought he heard
The throbbing wings of a prophetic bird.
To us his course was like a meteor's flight—
A skyward gleam and all again was night.

School Notes.

THE Offertory on the Patronal Festival of S. Peter, Apostle and Martyr, amounted to less than £4 10s.

The Phillimore English Essay Prize has been awarded to N. A. Bechman, the subject set being Southey's 'Curse of Kehama.'

The third trial of Orations was held up-School on Monday, July 6. The piece set was a speech of Macaulay, and on this occasion L. H. Chidson was adjudged best. As Boddy had been best on the first trial and equal with Chidson on the second, the prize was divided between them.

M. A. Thompson regained his Pinks after the Charterhouse Match, and H. B. Thacker was awarded them on the same occasion.

The Singing Competition was held on July 7. House Boarders won the Cup from Ashburnham.

As the result of the recent challenge, the following boys are recommended for election:—

(1) To College.—L. F. J. Bosanquet, B. A. Hendy, H. L. Pettitt, R. L. Bennett, *D. A. Radermacher, C. G. Willoughby, C. H. Tisdall, P. F. Dyson, H. A. Clegg, E. J. C. Neep, H. C. D. Davies, D. C. Waterfield.

(2) To Non-Resident Scholarships.—J. S. Bentwick, *J. C. Friedberger, *G. Turberville, *B. G. Scholefield, *R. H. S. Campbell.

(3) To Exhibitions of £30.—C. M. Cahn, H. Chisholm, D. B. Harden, C. W. Baty.

(4) To Exhibition of £20.—H. R. G. Smith.

* From the School.

We have been asked to say that any of those leaving this term who wish to play for the Old Westminster's Football Club, should apply to the Joint Hon. Secretaries, 14 Mount Ephraim Road, Streatham, S.W.

We are indebted to the kindness of Mr. G. H. Radcliffe, Clerk to the Dean and Chapter, for the following information :—

BUSBY TRUST.

Mr. Clement C. J. Webb has been appointed to the Trusteeship vacant by the death of Sir Francis Maclean.

The other Trustees, in order of appointment, are as follow :—

Sir W. G. F. Phillimore, Bart.	..	1885
Sir R. U. Penrose FitzGerald, Bart.		1889
Sir Roland Vaughan Williams	..	1890
V. A. Williamson, Esq., C.M.G.	..	1890
A. W. Williams Wynn, Esq.	..	1892
Sir Clements Markham, K.C.B.	..	1899
The Bishop of Bangor	.. ..	1902
Dr. C. L. Shadwell	.. ..	1906
The Rev. Canon Nigel Madan	.. ..	1908
H. F. Manisty, Esq., K.C.	.. ..	1909
Col. H. E. Rawson, C.B., R.E.	.. ..	1910
Major-Gen. Sir Alfred Turner, K.C.B.	.. .. .	1913

We append the Cricket Card filled in to date :—

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.
Played at Vincent Square.

May	9th, Sat.	v. Butterflies.	(Lost : 205—270.)
„	16th, Sat.	v. I Zingari.	(Lost: 132 and 133 for 1—300 for 7.)
„	20th, Wed.	v. The Household Brigade.	(Lost: 239—398 for 5.)
„	23rd, Sat.	v. Eton Ramblers.	(Drawn : 172 for 9 — Did not bat.)
„	30th, Sat.	Westminster Colts v. Haileybury Colts.	(Lost : 78 and 90 for 3—159.)
June	6th, Sat.	v. Christ Church.	(Won : 280 for 8—105.)
„	17th, Wed.	v. Radley.	(Drawn : 232 —181 for 8.)
„	20th, Sat.	v. Oxford University Authentics.	(Lost : 58 and 122 for 6—180 for 7 dec.)
„	27th, Sat.	v. Mr. L. A. M. Fevez's XI.	(Won : 334—157.)
July	3rd, Fri. }	v. Charterhouse (at Godalming).	(Drawn : 308—292.)
„	4th, Sat. }
„	8th, Wed.	v. M.C.C. and G.
„	11th, Sat.	v. Free Foresters.
„	18th, Sat.	v. O.W.W.
„	25th, Sat.	v. Incogniti.
„	27th, Mon.	T.B.B. v. K.S.S

O.T.C.

ON Tuesday, June 9, the Corps visited Chilworth for a field-day with Cranleigh School.

The band and two platoons, numbering about 120 of all ranks, were on parade. The general idea was that we were a Brown force whose object was to capture a convoy moving from Cranleigh to Guildford. Unfortunately for the success of the scheme we arrived at Chilworth nearly half an hour late, and the convoy had in the meantime continued to advance and were practically out of danger before we could commence operations. To make matters worse, the enemy were able to time our attack by the sound of the band which played us on to the field of battle, so that we and not our intended victims were taken by surprise.

Our dispositions were based on the assumption that the enemy's advance had been regulated by the arrival of our train. Two sections were at once sent due east across Blackheath to intercept the White convoy, while the remainder were to occupy positions on the high ground north of the road by which the convoy must pass. Very soon after leaving the rendezvous scouts reported the enemy in front as well as on our right flank. The situation developed rapidly, and the result of some dashing wood-fighting was the complete annihilation of our vanguard. When the umpires had successfully disentangled an exceedingly intricate situation, the fight resolved itself into a rearguard action, since the convoy had reached the railway at Redhill and thereby effected its escape. We were preparing for a general advance when the "Cease fire" sounded. The chief lessons learnt were the need for good scouting and the difficulty of keeping touch and direction in broken and wooded country. After a brief rest the Corps marched back to Chilworth, where the Commanding Officer had arranged for tea in a hay-field.

On Friday, June 12, a guard of honour was mounted at the Infants Hospital in Vincent Square, for the opening of the New Wing by H.R.H. the Duchess of Albany. About 100 of all ranks paraded, and, in spite of the somewhat cramped area of operations, acquitted themselves very creditably.

For the remainder of the term the Contingent has been ordered to resume the two-company organisation, in which it was inspected.

No. 1 Company is composed of those going to Camp, and No. 2, with a leaven of N.C.O.s from the other Company, comprises the remainder. The number of those going to Camp has shown a very gratifying increase during the past few weeks, and will probably reach 100. The Contingent will be in No. 1 Battalion at Mytchell Farm, under the command of Major Stucley of the Grenadier Guards. It is probable that the organisation of a Battalion in four Companies will be adopted in Camp.

THE WATER.

WESTMINSTER v. HAILEYBURY.

THIS race was rowed at Putney on Wednesday, July 1, over a course of about 7 furlongs, from Beverley Brook to Harrod's Wharf. Haileybury won the toss and chose the Middlesex station. Both crews started badly, and Haileybury led for the first few strokes; but after half a minute Westminster, rowing a longer and slightly faster stroke, gradually forged ahead, and at the top of Fulham Football Ground were leading by rather more than a length.

Here the Haileybury cox. took his crew too close to the Middlesex bank, and had to come out sharply to avoid running aground on the flats. Between the Mile Post and the Crab Tree, however, Haileybury spurred and slightly reduced our lead, but Westminster, reaching out in good style, went right away and won by nearly 5 lengths in 5 min. 13 secs.

Haileybury were slightly the heavier crew, but were short and rather sluggish. The winning crew owed its success to the fact that it had a fair beginning, and was long and lively. This it owed largely to stroke, who rowed well and was well backed up by 3.

The time, however, as could only be expected of a crew that for various reasons had only been together for four days, was not perfect.

The crews were as follows:—

WESTMINSTER.		SURREY STATION.
bow	F. E. D. Hodges	10 st.	2½ lb.
2	H. Terres	11 "	6¼ "
3	E. M. Taylor	11 "	3¾ "
str.	L. C. Schlotel	9 "	4 "
cox.	C. A. A. Robertson	6 "	7¼ "
HAILEYBURY.		MIDDLESEX STATION.
bow	R. C. G. Dartford	9 st.	5¼ lb.
2	T. C. N. Hall	12 "	1½ "
3	A. V. Low	11 "	12 "
str.	J. G. W. Deneys	9 "	1 "
cox.	G. W. Prince	7 "	13½ "

In view of the interest displayed in other quarters, it may not be out of place to give some facts connected with Water.

Only about thirty have been on at Putney, and of these few had any knowledge of rowing at the beginning of term. Accommodation is limited, and lack of boats of suitable rig has been an obstacle to the progress of individual oarsmen, and has prevented many crews going on at the same time. The race itself was rowed in centre-seated clinker-built boats, with fixed seats, hired from Phelps, but they were rather difficult for inexperienced oarsmen to sit. In spite of the ordinary difficulties connected with rowing on the tide-way—difficulties which are unfortunately much greater nearer Westminster—the 'four' showed that with more practice they would develop into a fast crew. As bow and 2 will be in the School next year, and as there are several promising oars among the rest, the prospects for another season are quite satisfactory. This is due in no small degree to the energetic way in which T. R. Dawson has organised the rowing and done all possible to promote efficiency.

In conclusion, we must thank the London Rowing Club for their hospitality to the 'four' during practice, and individual members for their advice and help in arranging the race.

D. P. S.

THE FIELDS.

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL v. CHRIST CHURCH. (Won.)

THIS match was played Up-Fields on Saturday, June 6, and resulted in a victory for the School by 2 wickets and 175 runs. The Visitors won the toss and went in, Howell and Mellor facing the bowling of Feasey and Thompson. Runs came steadily at first, although Mellor was badly missed off Feasey at square leg. The score was taken to 48 before Mellor was caught at point. Gull made some good strokes, but was out to a marvellous left-handed catch at point by Feasey. Rudd, Richardson and Manger followed soon after, but Heathcote Amory made some big hits. Howell was then caught off a bumping ball from the same bowler; Heathcote Amory and Hurst-Brown then took the score from 81 to 104, and the side were out for 105, the last man failing to put in an appearance. For the School Hodgson bowled excellently.

The School went in immediately after lunch with Veitch and Sankey. The latter was soon bowled, but Charlton then joined Veitch, and together they took the score from 18 to 144 before the former was caught at the wicket. Veitch, who gave several hard chances in the slips at the beginning of his innings, eventually settled down and played very well. Charlton, on the other hand, after being badly missed at square leg, never seemed really comfortable. Thacker, going in after the School had won, hit about him freely. Longton and Thompson put on 43 for the ninth wicket, and were unbeaten at the close, stumps being drawn at 5 o'clock.

Score and analysis :—

CHRIST CHURCH.

M. Howell, c. Carless, b. Hodgson .....	35
A. R. I. Mellor, c. Feasey, b. Thompson .....	16
R. C. Gull, c. Feasey, b. Hodgson .....	10
G. B. F. Rudd, b. Feasey .....	0
J. N. Richardson, b. Feasey .....	6
J. K. Manger, b. Hodgson .....	3
J. Heathcote Amory, b. Hodgson .....	17
R. M. Bickersteth, c. Veitch, b. Hodgson .....	1
C. Hurst-Brown, b. Hodgson .....	8
E. W. Wrigley, not out .....	0
Lord Whitechester, absent .....	0
Extras, byes 6, leg byes 3 .....	9
Total.....	105

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

D. G. Veitch, c. Richardson, b. Howell .....	71
C. M. Sankey, b. Wrigley .....	6
A. N. Charlton, c. Rudd, b. Whitechester.....	54
H. B. Thacker, c. Mellor, b. Whitechester .....	41
F. R. Oliver, b. Amory .....	5
E. L. Hodgson, b. Amory .....	12
A. C. Feasey, c. Howell, b. Wrigley .....	5
N. F. Furze, b. Whitechester .....	8
E. J. Longton, not out .....	30
M. A. Thompson, not out .....	20
H. A. Carless, did not bat.
Extras, byes 25, leg bye 1, wide 1, no ball 1	28
Total (for 8 wickets) .....	280

ANALYSIS OF BOWLING.

CHRIST CHURCH.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. C. Feasey.....	12	4	38	2
M. A. Thompson .....	6	0	37	1
E. L. Hodgson.....	6	0	21	6

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
J. Heathcote Amory.....	17	1	70	2
E. W. Wrigley .....	17	2	19	2
Lord Whitechester .....	9	0	58	3
A. R. I. Mellor.....	2	0	22	0
M. Howell.....	7	0	43	1

Amory bowled one no ball, and Mellor one wide.

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL v. RADLEY COLLEGE.

(Drawn.)

This match was played Up-Fields on Wednesday, June 17. The School won the toss and went in on an easy wicket shortly after 11 A.M.

Veitch and Sankey faced the bowling of Aked and Sturges. With the score at 18, Sankey was clean bowled by Sturges. Charlton then came in, and he and Veitch took the score to 70 before the former was well caught in the slips. Thacker did not stay long, being caught off a full-toss. Furze failed, but Oliver by careful cricket helped Veitch to put on 43 for the fifth wicket. Feasey made some good hits before being caught in the deep. Veitch all this time was playing very well, and with Hodgson in, the two quickly added 44. Veitch was eighth out, having made 118 out of 202 by admirable cricket. He hit a five and twelve fours.

Afterwards Longton and Carless put on 20 for the last wicket, and the innings closed shortly after lunch for 232. For the Visitors Aked bowled best, although Sturges had a very dangerous swerve.

Radley began their innings at 2.50 P.M. with Coote and Baker. The latter left with the score at 8 and Adams at 9. Coote and Marshall, however, by cautious tactics put on 18 for the third wicket, before the latter was clean bowled. Morkill then joined Coote and slowly the score crept to 56, when Veitch caught the former. Bucknall played well, but six wickets were down for 84, Coote being bowled after a steady innings. Griffith and Aked then came together, and took the score to 154, neither batsmen taking any risks. Furze then succeeded in dismissing Aked and Sturges with consecutive balls, both being l.b.w. Meanwhile, Griffith, having been missed early in his innings, was playing well. It had been arranged to draw stumps at 6 P.M., and at 5.40 eight wickets were down for 154. Wood, however, then came in and defended his wicket stolidly while Griffith scored. No more wickets fell, and stumps were drawn, the game ending rather disappointingly in a draw. The School fielding, after two wickets had fallen cheaply, became slack and lifeless for the most part, several catches being dropped off batsmen who afterwards made runs, notably Coote and Griffith. This fact was no doubt responsible for the School's not winning.

Score and analysis :—

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

D. G. Veitch, c. Morkill, b. Sturges .....	118
C. M. Sankey, b. Sturges .....	4
A. N. Charlton, c. Baker, b. Aked .....	13
H. B. Thacker, c. Morkill, b. Baker .....	8
N. F. Furze, b. Baker .....	0
F. R. Oliver, b. Coote .....	6
A. C. Feasey, c. Morkill, b. Coote .....	10
E. L. Hodgson, c. Adams, b. Aked .....	19
E. J. Longton, not out .....	19
M. A. Thompson, c. Wood, b. Aked.....	4
H. A. Carless, c. Wood, b. Aked .....	6
Extras, byes 15, leg byes 5, wides 3, no-balls 2	25

Total ..... 232

RADLEY COLLEGE.

G. B. Coote, b. Feasey .....	30
A. R. Baker, c. Carless, b. Hodgson .....	4
G. H. C. Adams, b. Feasey .....	1
B. E. A. Marshall, b. Feasey .....	11
H. B. Morkill, c. Veitch, b. Hodgson .....	14
R. D. H. Bucknall, b. Feasey.....	13
E. N. Griffith, not out .....	51
H. L. C. Aked, l.b.w., b. Furze.....	36
O. H. M. Sturges, l.b.w., b. Furze .....	0
E. R. G. Wood, not out .....	2
R. M. Beck, did not bat
Extras, byes 19 .....	19
Total (for 8 wickets) .....	181

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
H. L. C. Aked .....	20.4	4	83	4
O. H. M. Sturges .....	19	0	79	2
A. R. Baker .....	7	1	19	2
R. M. Beck.....	2	0	12	0
G. B. Coote .....	4	1	14	2

Sturges bowled 3 wides and 2 no-balls.

RADLEY COLLEGE.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. C. Feasey .....	24	16	23	4
E. L. Hodgson .....	14	4	29	2
M. A. Thompson .....	6	2	11	0
N. F. Furze.....	7	1	19	2
A. N. Charlton .....	6	1	18	0
H. B. Thacker .....	6	1	22	0
F. R. Oliver .....	7	2	17	0
E. J. Longton.....	3	1	11	0
D. G. Veitch .....	3	0	12	0

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL v. OXFORD UNIVERSITY AUTHENTICS.

(Lost.)

This match was played Up-Fields on Saturday, June 20. The School won the toss and elected to bat on a drying wicket that helped the bowlers. Veitch and Sankey opened the innings, but both left with the score at 6. Thacker, Longton and Oliver were all out shortly after to Mackenzie, who was swerving tremendously. Feasey then joined Charlton and the two quickly put on 28 for the sixth wicket, the only noteworthy stand in the innings. Feasey was caught off a mis-hit, and Hodgson mis-timed one and was easily caught. Soon after, the innings closed for 58. Charlton played an exceedingly useful innings and was the only one except Feasey who seemed able to play the bowling. For the visitors Raikes and Mackenzie bowled throughout the innings, the latter especially carrying all before him.

The visitors had five minutes' batting before lunch, during which Gow was missed at the wicket. Foljambe and Gow put on 43 for the first wicket before the latter was out in attempting to pull a short one. Stow and Colman were out to consecutive balls from Hodgson. However, Stanyforth and Foljambe had a long partnership, putting on 84 for the fourth wicket. Foljambe was especially brilliant, his off-drives being very powerful. Mackenzie and Probyn hit about before the innings was declared closed. The School went in again for an hour and a half, and though Charlton and Sankey failed, Veitch and Thacker, and afterwards Longton and Oliver, played well and succeeded in saving the innings defeat.

Score and analysis :—

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

D. G. Veitch, c. Probyn, b. Raikes .....	5	c. & b. Knight .....	22
C. M. Sankey, c. Probyn, b. Mackenzie .....	1	b. Graham .....	0
A. N. Charlton, not out .....	34	b. Graham .....	0
H. B. Thacker, b. Mackenzie	1	c. & b. Knight.....	31
E. J. Longton, lbw., b. Mackenzie.....	0	not out .....	26
F. R. Oliver, b. Mackenzie	0	c. Stow, b. Charteris ...	12
A. C. Feasey, c. Coleman, b. Mackenzie .....	10	b. Foljambe .....	8
E. L. Hodgson, c. & b. Raikes .....	0	not out .....	13
N. F. Furze, c. Probyn, b. Raikes .....	1
D. H. Kitchen, c. & b. Mackenzie.....	0
M. A. Thompson, c. & b. Mackenzie.....	4
Extras, leg bye 1, wide 1	2	Extras, byes 8, leg byes 2	10
Total .....	58	Total (for 6 wickets)	122

OXFORD UNIVERSITY AUTHENTICS.

E. W. S. Foljambe, b. Thacker .....	83
J. C. Gow, b. Hodgson .....	11
V. A. S. Stow, b. Hodgson.....	7
G. R. R. Colman, b. Hodgson .....	0
R. T. Stanyforth, c. Veitch, b. Charlton .....	26
Hon. Hugo Charteris, run out.....	0
Rev. C. B. H. Knight, c. & b. Oliver .....	0
M. K. Mackenzie, not out ..	11
S. C. Probyn, not out .....	18
K. C. Raikes
O. B. Graham	} did not bat
Extras, byes 19, leg byes 5 .....	24
Total (for 7 wickets).....	180*

* Innings declared closed

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.—1st Innings.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets
K. C. Raikes .....	10	2	26	3
M. K. Mackenzie .....	10	2	30	7

Raikes bowled 1 wide.

2nd Innings.

O. B. Graham.....	7	2	19	2
S. C. Probyn .....	4	0	16	0
Rev. C. B. H. Knight ...	7	1	18	2
E. W. S. Foljambe... ..	5	1	8	1
K. C. Raikes .....	4	1	15	0
M. K. Mackenzie .....	4	1	14	0
G. R. R. Colman .....	2	0	15	0
Hon. H. Charteris .....	2	0	2	1
R. T. Stanyforth.....	1	0	5	0

OXFORD UNIVERSITY AUTHENTICS.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. C. Feasey.....	10	1	61	0
E. L. Hodgson.....	11	2	35	3
M. A. Thompson.....	2	0	15	0
F. R. Oliver .....	4	1	24	1
A. N. Charlton.....	2	1	4	1
H. B. Thacker .....	3	0	14	1
E. J. Longton .....	1	0	3	0

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL v. L. A. M. FEVEZ'S XI.
(Won.)

This match was played Up-Fields on June 27, and resulted in a win for the School by 177 runs. The School again won the toss and went in on a fast wicket. Veitch and Sankey started, but with only 22 on the score-sheet the former was finely thrown out in attempting a fourth run. Charlton followed and helped Sankey to take the score to 71 before putting one up in the slips off Clarke. Sankey was out soon after to the same bowler, and so also were Oliver, Feasey and Thompson. With the score at 82 for six, Furze joined Thacker, and quickly settling down the two put on 161 for the seventh wicket by bright cricket. Seventh out at 243 Thacker played excellently. Longton did not stay long, but Furze and Hodgson put on 55 for the ninth wicket. The innings eventually closed for 334, Furze having played a fine not out innings which included four 5's and eleven 4's. For the visitors Clarke bowled best, his analysis at one time reading :

overs.	runs.	wkts.
4	5	5

The visitors began their innings at a quarter to four, with two hours and three-quarters in which to get the runs. Smith and Radcliffe opened the innings, but the latter left at 25 as also did Drayson. Severn helped Smith to take the score to 52 before being bowled. Dixon failed, but Hale and Smith put on 50, before the latter was caught out after an invaluable innings. Hale and Fox left soon after. Leigh-Ibbs, though he was missed several times, scored 30 out of 48 before skying one to mid-on. Our opponents were all out soon after, with a quarter of an hour to spare. Feasey bowled very well for the School, and Hodgson was unlucky only to get one wicket.

Score and analysis:—

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

D. G. Veitch, run out.....	10
C. M. Sankey, b. Clarke .....	35
A. N. Charlton, c. Fox, b. Clarke .....	18
H. B. Thacker, c. Ibbs, b. Hale .....	82
F. R. Oliver, b. Clarke.....	0
A. C. Feasey, b. Clarke.....	105
M. A. Thompson, b. Clarke .....	0
N. F. Furze, not out .....	1
E. J. Longton, b. Hale .....	9
E. L. Hodgson, b. Fevez .....	31
D. H. Kitchin, c. Severn, b. Fevez.....	6
Extras, byes 12, leg byes 24, wides 2 .....	38
Total .....	334

Mr. L. A. M. FEVEZ'S XI.

E. C. Smith, c. Furze, b. Charlton .....	58
W. M. Radcliff, b. Feasey .....	13
C. D. Drayson, l.b.w., b. Feasey .....	0
A. R. Severn, b. Feasey .....	17
W. H. Dixon, b. Feasey .....	0
W. S. Hale, c. Oliver, b. Charlton ..	18
W. F. Fox, b. Feasey .....	0
R. Leigh-Ibbs, c. Longton, b. Oliver ..	30
E. C. K. Clarke, b. Hodgson ..	11
F. G. Oliver, b. Oliver .....	6
L. A. M. Fevez, not out .....	0
Extras, bye 1, leg byes 3 .....	4
Total .....	157

ANALYSIS OF BOWLING.

WESTMINSTER SCHOOL.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets
W. M. Radcliff .....	6	1	26	0
W. S. Hale .....	19	2	83	2
E. C. Smith .....	16		98	0
E. C. K. Clarke .....	13	1	51	5
W. H. Dixon .....	4	0	25	0
L. A. M. Fevez.....	3	0	13	2

Smith and Dixon each bowled one wide.

Mr. L. A. M. FEVEZ'S XI.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. C. Feasey.....	19	5	51	5
E. L. Hodgson.....	15	1	53	1
F. R. Oliver .....	5.4	0	24	2
A. N. Charlton .....	3	0	9	2
M. A. Thompson .....	5	1	16	0

WESTMINSTER v. CHARTERHOUSE.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JULY 3 AND 4.

(Drawn.)

Though it had been raining in the morning, the wicket was very fast when Hinds won the toss for Charterhouse and elected to bat first. Play began at 12 o'clock, Feasey and Hodgson bowling to Smith and Ritchie. The first ball of the match was cut for four by Smith, who after a few good strokes was clean bowled with the score at 18. Pollock then came in and, batting confidently, helped Ritchie to put on 25 before skying one behind the wicket. With the score at 50 for two, rain came on heavily and the luncheon interval was taken at 1.15. Play was resumed at 2.15 for a quarter of an hour, during which time Ritchie, who never seemed comfortable after being hit in the back by a ball from Hodgson, was run out after a brilliant piece of fielding by Veitch. At 2.30, with the score at 68 for three, the rain came down so heavily that it looked as though further play that day was out of the question. Taking advantage of this, Kitchin took the opportunity of going into Godalming, so that when it was found to be possible to resume the game at 4.45, Veitch went behind the sticks until the wicket-keeper returned at half-past five. Meantime, Wesley-Smith and Strachan took the score from 68 to 103 before the former was yorked. Strachan was cleverly caught by Kitchin off a leg-break at 111, while neither Hinds nor Hadley stayed long, the latter being out to an especially fine catch at square-leg by Furze. However, Blumer and Cooke then came together and stayed until play closed for the day at 6.30 with the score at 169 for seven. The next morning dawned fine with plenty of sun, and arrangements were made for the pitch to be rolled at 10.15 for play to begin at 11.0. On resuming, Blumer and Cooke continued to play very well, putting on 73 for the eighth wicket before the latter was stumped. Blumer continued to bat excellently, receiving useful help from Cawston. The ninth wicket fell at 232, but Reiss and Blumer, thanks to some loose bowling, and a miss at the wicket, took the score to 292 before the innings closed. Blumer played an admirable innings in every way, hitting very hard on the leg-side.

The School's innings started disastrously, Veitch being out at 0 and Sankey at 1. Then, however, Charlton and Thacker came together and took the score to 37 before lunch. After the interval the two scored very fast, putting on 115 for the third wicket in an hour. Both batsmen were lucky, Thacker snicking several off his wicket from Hadley, while Charlton was let off at the wicket. At 116 Thacker was caught off a mis-hit. The partnership was an exceedingly plucky one in the circumstances, and both deserve praise for laying the foundation of a big total. Charlton was caught and bowled with the score at 130, but Furze and Longton took the score to 153, when they were out to consecutive balls from Hadley. Feasey then joined Oliver and started hitting at once while the latter played steadily. The partnership was an invaluable one, realising 68 runs, of which Feasey made 46, including ten 4's. Hodgson did not stay long, but Thompson joined Oliver and the two took the score from 223 to 260 before Oliver was out after a well-played 20. By this time, 4.45, all hope of a definite finish was out of the question, and the only thing to be wished for was to pass our opponents' total. At the fall of the ninth wicket, Kitchin joined Thompson, who had been hitting freely. Blumer having hurt his finger was obliged to stand back to Hadley from time to time, and the two batsmen took advantage of this fact to take their stand about a foot out, with the result that they succeeded in putting on 48 for the last wicket before Thompson mis-hit one to mid-off. The stand was a remarkably good one in every way, it being very nerve-trying work to be left with 33 to get for the last wicket. The fielding on both sides was excellent, while the Westminster bowling was better than it has ever been this season. It was very disappointing that so little play was possible on the first day, but it is not often that such an eventful and interesting game has ended in a draw. Finally, we must thank all the Carthusians—Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher in particular—for their kind hospitality.

Score and analysis :—

CHARTERHOUSE.

G. M. L. Smith, b. Feasey .....	12
J. C. Ritchie, run out .....	30
J. Pollock, c. Kitchin, b. Feasey .....	11
T. Wesley-Smith, b. Thompson .....	20
J. H. Strachan, c. Kitchin, b. Charlton .....	25
G. V. Hinds, b. Feasey .....	7
H. E. Blumer, not out .....	96
P. S. Hadley, c. Furze, b. Feasey .....	3
G. C. S. B. Cooke, st. Kitchin, b. Charlton .....	30
G. Cawston, l.b.w., b. Thompson .....	18
P. Q. Reiss, b. Furze .....	28
Extras, byes 12 .....	12
Total .....	292

WESTMINSTER.

D. G. Veitch, c. Pollock, b. Cooke .....	0
C. M. Sankey, c. Blumer, b. Cooke .....	0
A. N. Charlton, c. and b. Pollock .....	64
H. B. Thacker, c. Reiss, b. Cawston .....	64
N. F. Furze, b. Hadley .....	12
E. J. Longton, c. Ritchie, b. Hadley .....	9
F. R. Oliver, b. Cawston .....	20
A. C. Feasey, b. Cawston .....	46
E. L. Hodgson, b. Cawston .....	1
M. A. Thompson, c. Hinds, b. Pollock .....	38
D. H. Kitchin, not out .....	22
Extras, byes 17, leg byes 9, wides 6 .....	32
Total .....	308

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

CHARTERHOUSE.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. C. Feasey .....	38	9	87	4
E. L. Hodgson .....	21	6	64	0
F. R. Oliver .....	14	3	29	0
A. N. Charlton .....	19	3	55	2
M. A. Thompson .....	16	3	41	2
N. F. Furze .....	1.1	0	4	1

WESTMINSTER.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
G. C. S. B. Cooke .....	19	4	67	2
G. Cawston .....	22	5	89	4
P. S. Hadley.....	18	1	86	2
J. Pollock .....	6.4	2	23	2
P. Q. Reiss .....	5	2	11	0

Cawston bowled 2, and Hadley 4 wides.

THE AVERAGES (including v. CHARTERHOUSE).

BATTING.

	No of Innings.	Times not out.	Runs.	Highest Score.	Average.
D. G. Veitch ...	9	0	441	118	49.00
A. N. Charlton ...	9	1	284	68	35.50
H. B. Thacker ...	9	0	246	82	27.33
N. F. Furze ...	9	1	169	105*	21.12

* Signifies not out.

BOWLING.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.	Average.
D. G. Veitch ...	13	2	85	5	17.00
E. L. Hodgson	83	13	278	14	19.85
A. C. Feasey ...	151.2	39	497	21	23.66
A. N. Charlton	52	6	209	7	29.85

SENIORS: FIRST ROUND.

GRANT'S v. HOMEBOARDERS.

JUNE 24 AND 25.

Grant's won the toss and elected to bat on a plumb wicket. D. G. Veitch and C. M. Sankey opened the innings to the bowling of A. C. Feasey and N. F. Furze. Grant's scoring was very consistent and closed for 229, C. M. Sankey being top scorer with a steady 42. H.B.B. fared disastrously, and no one except Furze could offer any resistance to the Grantite attack. H.B.B. innings closed for 92, which necessitated a follow on. Another disastrous start ensued, but A. C. Feasey, coming to his side's rescue, hit hard all round the wicket for a brilliant 93. He received invaluable help from Pulvertaft and Brookman, both of whom showed great restraint, and the total closed for 163. Hodgson bowled well for Grant's, taking nine wickets for 45. Grant's knocked off the required runs for the loss of Sankey's wicket and so won by nine wickets.

Appended are the scores:—

GRANT'S.

1st Inns.	2nd Inns.
D. G. Veitch, c. & b. Furze	not out ..... 12
C. M. Sankey, l.b.w., b. Julian	42 l.b.w., b. Furze ..... 9
G. B. Gardiner, b. Feasey	36 not out ..... 7
F. R. Oliver, l.b.w., b. Stones	5
H. B. Thacker, b. Stones	28
E. J. Longton, b. Furze	23
R. Smith, c. Feasey, b. Furze	6
E. L. Hodgson, c. Brookman, b. Stones	24
H. S. Todd, b. Stones	1
R. M. Blundell l.b.w., b. Furze	11
J. H. Spence, not out	8
Extras	23
Total	229
	Extras..... 2
	Total for 1 wkt.... 30

did not bat

HOMEBOARDERS.

1st Inns.	2nd Inns.
N. F. Furze, c. Sankey, b. Oliver	48 c. Veitch, b. Hodgson ... 0
A. C. Feasey, b. Hodgson	1 c. Spence, b. Hodgson... 93
L. H. H. Lowe, b. Thacker	0 b. Hodgson ..... 0
C. E. Stones, b. Thacker	1 c. and b. Hodgson..... 5
C. R. Julian, c. & b. Oliver	10 b. Hodgson ..... 3
J. B. Brookman, b. Oliver	0 b. Oliver ..... 13
R. J. Pulvertaft, b. Thacker	0 b. Hodgson ..... 9
H. E. Macfarlane, c. Spence, b. Oliver	6 c. Sankey, b. Hodgson ... 0
P. T. E. Jackson, c. Veitch, b. Hodgson	13 c. Veitch, b. Hodgson... 2
J. C. A. Davis, l.b.w., b. Hodgson	0 b. Hodgson ..... 12
F. G. Ayland, not out	0 not out ..... 7
Extras	13 Extras ..... 19
Total	92 Total.....163

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

H. B.B.—1st Innings.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
E. L. Hodgson.....	8	0	25	3
H. B. Thacker.....	8	1	36	3
F. R. Oliver .....	4	1	18	4

2nd Innings.

E. L. Hodgson.....	12	0	45	9
H. B. Thacker.....	6	0	49	0
F. R. Oliver.....	7	0	41	1
E. J. Longton .....	1	0	9	0

GRANT'S.—1st Innings.

A. C. Feasey .....	18	1	77	1
N. F. Furze .....	15	5	42	4
C. R. Julian .....	7	2	20	1
J. Brookman .....	3	0	10	0
C. E. Stones .....	9	0	52	4

2nd Innings.

A. C. Feasey .....	2	1	14	0
N. F. Furze .....	2	0	14	1

ASHBURNHAM v. RIGAUD'S.

JUNE 24 AND 25.

On the first day, after Vernham had won the toss, Rigaud's batted on a perfect wicket, but were all out for 72. The batting was very weak, Vernham alone showing any enterprise. Ashburnham then went in, and against some of the weakest bowling ever seen in Seniors, scored 260 for five, Carless having the bad luck to be bowled when 99. On Thursday, Ashburnham declared when the score had been quickly raised to 322 for eight. In their second innings Rigaud's fared a little better, getting 73. This time it was Kerpen who enlivened matters by scoring 38 off some half-volleys. Ashburnham thus won by an innings and 177 runs. There was no test of their batting strength, but their bowling was merely moderate.

Score and analysis :—

RIGAUD'S.
1st Inns.	2nd Inns.
P. B. Frere, b. Pite..... 3	b. Pite ..... 3
W. S. Anderson, lbw., b. Rudge ..... 4	c. Carless, A., b. Pite ... 1
N. M. Vernham, c. & b. Leighton ..... 41	b. Pite ... ..... 0
F. T. R. Rowlands, b. Rudge 1	c. Carless, A., b. Strain 0
P. A. T. Powell, c. Brodie, b. Rudge ..... 0	b. Strain ..... 1
P. H. Leslie, run out ..... 0	c. Gerrish, b. Brodie ... 6
B. O. M. Linford, c. Paul, b. Brodie ..... 8	c. Gerrish, b. Rudge ... 0
E. Davison, b. Brodie..... 0	not out ..... 2
D. Moses, b. Pite..... 6	b. Pite ..... 5
H. W. Watkins, not out..... 3	b. Brodie ..... 7
C. V. Kerpen, absent ..... 0	c. Carless, A., b Brodie 38
Extras, byes 3, leg bye 1, wides 2 6	Extras, byes 9, wide 1 ... 10
Total..... 72	Total ..... 73

ASHBURNHAM.

H. A. Carless, b. Frere.....	99
J. Strain, b. Rowlands .....	36
D. A. Radermacher, run out .....	29
A. G. Pite, b. Watkins.....	8
G. Paul, c. Leslie, b. Watkins ..	40
W. E. Gerrish, c. Leslie, b. Frere .....	19
A. L. Leighton, c. Powell, b. Frere .....	3
H. D. Carless, b. Kerpen.....	16
K. Brodie, not out.....	28
E. H. R. Tenison, not out .....	0
H. N. Rudge, did not bat
Extras, byes 36, leg byes 2, wides 2, no balls 4	44
Total (for 8 wks.) .....	322*

* Innings declared closed.

BOWLING ANALYSIS.

RIGAUD'S.—1st innings.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. G. Pite ... ..	9.1	5	21	2
H. N. Rudge ... ..	8	2	29	3
K. Brodie .....	4	1	6	2
J. L. Strain .....	3	1	9	0
A. L. Leighton .....	2	0	10	1

2nd innings.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
A. G. Pite .....	6	3	16	4
H. N. Rudge .....	4	0	18	1
K. Brodie .....	4	1	4	3
J. L. Strain.....	5	1	25	2

ASHBURNHAM.

	Overs.	Maidens.	Runs.	Wickets.
P. B. Frere .....	16	2	80	3
D. Moses .....	17	4	58	0
F. T. R. Rowlands .....	11	1	52	1
B. O. M. Linford .....	4	0	30	0
C. V. Kerpen .....	2	0	12	1
W. S. Anderson ..	2	0	15	0
P. H. Leslie .....	7	3	16	0
H. W. Watkins .....	8	1	16	2

FIVES.

THE draw for the Semi-final of the School Ties is as follows :—

D. G. Veitch and J. L. Strain	} v. {	A. C. Feasey and H. B. Thacker
H. A. Carless and G. R. D. Gee	} a bye

SHOOTING.

WESTMINSTER v. MERCHANT TAYLORS
JUNE 3.

This was the last match fired under the old Ashburton conditions. A new rule was published that there shall be no sighters. This caused considerable confusion.

WESTMINSTER.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Sergt. Shepherd .....	32	32	64
Sergt. Chidson .....	31	28	59
Corpl. Turner .....	30	28	58
Corpl. Warren .....	27	30	57
Sergt. Crow ..	29	33	62
Private Ashley .....	31	28	59
Private Shannon .....	30	30	60
Private Wood-Roberts .....	30	26	56
	240	235	475	Grand Total.
MERCHANT TAYLORS' .....	232	241	473

WESTMINSTER v. FELSTED AND HAILEYBURY.

JUNE 10.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Private Spence .....	30	31	61
Private Ashley .....	30	29	59
Sergt. Crow .....	24	33	57
Corpl. Warren .....	28	28	56
Private Roberts .....	27	28	55
Private Nelson .....	29	26	55
Private Blundell.....	24	29	53
Private Wood-Roberts .....	26	25	51
	218	229	447	Grand Total.
HAILEYBURY .....	233	228	461
FELSTED.....	226	237	463

The following are the scores for the House Competition, Tuesday 23rd.

HOME BOARDERS.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Sergt. Chidson .....	28	26	54
Private Ashley .....	32	28	60
Private Wood-Roberts .....	25	24	49
Private Thompson .....	26	27	53

Grand Total 216

COLLEGE.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Q.M.-Sergt. Waterson .....	23	22	45
Corpl. Turner .....	30	23	53
Sergt. Crow .....	23	31	54
Private Roberts .....	28	29	57

Grand Total 209

ASHBURNHAM .....	"	"	199
GRANT'S .....	"	"	196
RIGAUE'S .....	"	"	175

The first round of the Brinton Medal resulted in a draw.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Private Ashley .....	32	28	60
Sergt. Shepherd .....	32	28	60

On the re-shoot

Sergt. Shepherd won the Brinton with .....	61
Private Ashley .....	54

WESTMINSTER v. ST. LAWRENCE COLLEGE AND WELLINGTON. JUNE 23.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Sergt. Shepherd .....	32	28	60
Sergt. Chidson .....	28	26	54
Corpl. Turner .....	30	23	53
Corpl. Warren .....	28	30	58
Private Blundell .....	30	25	55
Sergt. Crow .....	23	31	54
Private Ashley .....	32	28	60
Private Roberts .....	28	29	57

231 220 451

ST. LAWRENCE COLLEGE .....	233	237	470
WELLINGTON .....	223	219	442

WESTMINSTER v. MARLBOROUGH, MALVERN AND CRANLEIGH. WED., 24th.

	200 yards.	300 yards.	Total.
Sergt. Shepherd .....	32	31	63
Corpl. Warren .....	31	33	64
Corpl. Turner .....	27	25	52
Q.M.-Sergt. Waterson .....	30	21	51
Private Roberts .....	28	25	53
Sergt. Crow .....	30	32	62
Private Ashley .....	30	31	61
Private Thompson .....	26	23	49

234 221 455

MARLBOROUGH .....	235	246	481
MALVERN .....	237	244	481
CRANLEIGH .....	226	221	447

House Notes.

K.SS.—Mr. R. R. Sedgwick has recently asked for a play for a first in Part I. Hist. Trip. at Cambridge and also half the Gladstone Memorial Prize. College supplied three members of the team v. Charterhouse—viz., A. N. Charlton, M. A. Thompson, who is to be congratulated on regaining his Pinks, and D. H. Kitchin. The School Four that beat Haileybury had F. E. D. Hodges as bow. Our cricket Juniors are on their way to beating Ashburnham, but we lost in the Singing Competition, having very bad luck in losing the manager, C. A. Crow, at the last moment. The Literary Society closes the year with selections on Friday, July 10, when several of the members will enjoy for the last time a privilege for which we have to thank Mr. and Mrs. Raynor. Finally, we end a school year of house notes with the cheerful and encouraging news that very nearly two-thirds of College are going to Camp.

ASHBURNHAM.—SIR,—We feel constrained by the uncalled-for and deceptive innuendoes of your Oxford correspondent to point out that our recent head, D. F. Jerrold, has been elected Secretary of the Union at Oxford, a position, we believe, which almost certainly leads to the Presidency—a state of things apparently considered impossible, nay, absurd, by your correspondent. Our passage to the Final of Seniors was, as expected, a triumphant one, but our behaviour in Juniors has been less regular, and we tremble at the future. Our main care, however, is the number of examinations through which we are passing or about to pass. We must congratulate our two stalwarts who so ably helped to beat Haileybury on the water. After a certain amount of preliminary cheating, Fives Ties are nearing the Final Round. After many basses have resigned our singing four has at last been completed. With these energies our future is so thick that there is none left to write a fitting farewell to these notes, the best medium ever known for literary talent.

GRANT'S.—So far, so good. But we must not take upon us the evil task of boasting. In Cricket Seniors we gained a handsome victory by 9 wickets over Home Boarders. Our batting was most consistent and the bowling quite fair, but, most important of all, the fielding was weak, especially in H.BB. second innings. In cricket we survived the first round by defeating H.BB. by 7 wickets. There are many promising 'bats,' and the bowling reaches a high Junior standard. We sincerely trust that we shall be successful in both finals in the near future. We have unfortunately been defeated in the Inter-House Shooting Competition, our position being fourth with a score of 196—twenty points behind the winners' total. But individually we were successful, as Sergt. Shepherd won the Brinton Medal with the fine score of 61; considering the wind, it was a praiseworthy performance. Grant's as usual were well to the fore at Charterhouse, supplying six members to the team. Besides D. G. Veitch, there were H. B. Thacker, E. L. Hodgson, E. J. Longton, F. R. Oliver and C. M. Sankey, all of whom have played regularly for the team.

H.B.B.—We must begin our notes this month by offering our very tardy congratulations to Stones and Brookman on playing for the colts against Haileybury Colts. In Seniors we were not unexpectedly defeated by Grant's; May, Stones and Pulvertaft gained well-deserved House Colours. The Shooting Cup has returned to Home Boarders after a short absence of two years, and we congratulate our four on recovering it. We must also congratulate Friedberger and Turberville on getting the Challenge, both of them staying with us. In Juniors we were unfortunately knocked out by Grant's after leading on the first innings. In conclusion, we wish our singers all success in the Inter-House Competition.

RIGAUD'S.—Though we take up the pen with mingled feelings, we can yet confidently assert that the sum of weal exceeds the sum of woe. In Seniors, it is true, we succumbed. But there were relieving lights, such as the brilliance of our Captain's score in the first innings and the splendid effort of Kerpen in the second, who rose from a sick-bed to join the fray, thereby gaining House Colours, on which we take this opportunity of congratulating him.

In Juniors our chances are decidedly good. In spite of the fact that we drew the favourite team, Moses, Anderson and others were able to knock up considerable scores.

We must not forget to congratulate Mr. Willett on being promoted to the rank of Captain. In him we have an ever-present example of what a Rigaudite could and should be.

In the academic line Rigaud's is again to the front. We must congratulate B. G. Scholefield on gaining a Scholarship and are glad that he is not to carry his knowledge elsewhere. Congratulations are also due to N. A. Bechman on gaining the 'Phillimore Essay' prize.

Finally, we wish F. R. Burford as much success at 'Election' as he has had in guiding the fortunes of the house.

Old Westminster.

At Oxford the Hertford Scholarship has been awarded to Mr. J. G. Barrington-Ward. As the Hertford is the greatest distinction given for Latin, it is pleasant to recall that it has fallen to Westminster three times in eleven years. It was won by Mr. J. S. Phillimore in 1892, by Mr. W. A. Greene in 1904, and by Mr. A. P. Waterfield in 1909.

Mr. D. M. Low, Scholar of Oriel, has been elected to the Craven Studentship at the British School of Rome.

At Cambridge Mr. R. R. Sedgwick is in the First Class in the Historical Tripos, Part I. As he shares the Gladstone Memorial Prize with two candidates in Part II., we may take it that he heads the list. Mr. A. D. Crow is in the Second Class of the Mathematical Tripos, Part I., and Mr. V. Dvorkovitz in the Second Class of the Natural Science Tripos, Part I.

Mr. F. T. Barrington-Ward has been appointed Recorder of Hythe.

Sir Guy Laking, Bart., M.V.O., has been created a Companion of the Order of the Bath.

At Oxford Mr. L. P. Openshaw is in the First and Mr. F. G. Hobson in the Second Class in Natural Science. In the examination in the History, Theory and Practice of Education, Mr. G. G. Williams is at the head of the list, being the only candidate to obtain distinction.

Marriages.

GASCOYNE-CECIL—JANNAWAY.—On June 16, Randle William Gascoyne-Cecil to Dorothy May Jannaway.

YOUNG—MELLOR.—On July 2, Dallas Hales Wilkie Young to Irene Barbara Lushington, second daughter of the late Rev. W. S. Mellor, of Rodmersham, Kent.

Obituary.

THE death of EUSTACE HEPBURN BARLOW reminds us of the diversity of human occupations. He was admitted in 1867 and was a Q.S. from 1871 to 1873. Afterwards he became a land agent and won renown as one of the best horsebreeders in Yorkshire, and therefore, as Yorkshiremen will have it, in the whole country.

THE death of AMYAS PHILIP LONGSTAFFE removes one of the somewhat numerous Westminsterers who are County Court Judges. He was at the School from 1871 to 1877, and was a Q.S. Called to the Bar in 1880 he joined the North-Eastern Circuit. He became a Revising Barrister and also Assistant Recorder of Leeds. On his appointment as a County Court Judge he received circuit No. 12, including Halifax and some neighbouring towns. Shortly before his death he was transferred to Bristol. He died suddenly on June 13.

THE death of BENJAMIN PRESTON, who was at the School from 1859 to 1864, removes one of our cricket Blues. As a member of Gonville and Caius College, he played for Cambridge in 1870. Of late years he had resided at Lowestoft, where he died on June 1.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of 'The Elizabethan.'

DEAR SIR,—Might I again trespass on your space with a few remarks about Summer Camps? The primary object of the Universities' Camps for Public Schools is to give some practical help towards the development of true Christian character. If any boy wishes to attend either Camp, he must apparently either neglect his religious duty or neglect his duty to his country and to his School. Any boy attending the U.C.P.S. certainly neglects his military duties; any boy attending the O.T.C. Camp certainly does NOT neglect his religious duties. At the O.T.C. Camp provision is made for Anglicans, Romans and Dissenters. A short Service is held every morning, not too long to weary the boys. One is not worried by a series of moral lectures, and consequently the religious side is not overdone. In fact, the O.T.C. hits off the happy medium, and one would have thought it offered just as many opportunities for the development of a true Christian character.

I now propose to show how the U.C.P.S. have for the past three or four years been drawing seven or eight boys every year away from the Westminster contingent in the O.T.C. Camp. The majority of new boys look upon their house monitors as little demi-gods to the best of their ability. There is a monitor up Ashburnham, and two other Ashburnhamites in the Sixth, who will one day become very important members of their house, and all these are going to the U.C.P.S. The monitor and one of the others are in the Corps, and yet they have never been to the O.T.C. Camp, and are not going this year. New boys at once come to the conclusion that as the bloods do not patronise the O.T.C. Camps, it is not for them to do so. Anyhow, I myself did not join when I first came, because my own monitor was not in the Corps, and I imagine other boys take the same course.

Perhaps the fact that up till half-term only eight Ashburnhamites, Ashburnham being one of the two biggest houses, had put their names down for the O.T.C. Camp, bears out my theory that, though the U.C.P.S. draw away perhaps only 200 people a year from all the School Corps, each one of these 200 has the immediate effect of keeping away two or three, or even more, from the O.T.C. Camps. One of the many correspondents pointed out that the ten days he spent at the U.C.P.S. were among the happiest of his life, and I believe most of the others think the same. That being the case, why cannot they attend the Corps Camp first and then go on to the Special Late Camp? It cannot spoil their holiday, because on their own admission it is the nicest time they ever had, and therefore must be better than plain holidays. The officers, usually Oxford or Cambridge men about 22 or 23 years old, I always thought set rather a bad example. They never ran down the O.T.C., but they always talked about it as being a great nuisance, and I never once heard an officer ask a boy why he had not first done his duty to his School, and then attended the Late Camp.

I was fully aware of the fact that the Headmaster of Westminster was a Vice-President of the U.C.P.S., but I feel quite sure that he would like to see boys in the Corps attending first the one Camp and then the U.C.P.S. After all, he has just a tiny bit more than a passing interest in the School Corps, possibly more interest in the O.T.C. than in the other. Dulwich, Malvern and Rossall, to mention three Schools of a similar standing to Westminster, and those of the many schools whose Headmasters are Vice-Presidents, send between them about 450 boys a year to the O.T.C. Camp, equivalent to the sum total of the boys attending ALL the Universities' Camps. When one also remembers that Dr. Lyttelton is another Vice-President, and that Eton furnishes a contingent at the O.T.C. Camp considerably larger than the whole of Westminster School, I think I am justified in stating that these Headmasters are more interested in things actually connected with the School.

A well-worn excuse in the case of Westminster is that the whole School cannot be in the Corps, and those who are not can go to the other Camps. Quite wrong—under the new system of half the Corps parading on Mondays, and the other half on Fridays, it is possible to drill 150 with ease on each day; thus the whole School can be in the Corps when it chooses to join.

In conclusion, won't sane-minded people admit that in a Camp for 3,500 people everything can be arranged on a better footing than in one for 100? Washing-water from mains is better than water from a tank exposed to the open air; thirty shower-baths or more are better than none, even though the sea be near; there is as much difference between the other sanitary arrangements in the two Camps as there is between London and Venice; the same remarks apply to the many canteens of the one open all day and the solitary canteen of the other open for an hour. In the O.T.C. Camp there seems to be just the right proportion of work and rest, and quite as many forms of recreation as the U.C.P.S. afford. After all, seeing that I have experience of both Camps, I do know what I am talking about. I have no wish to drive people away from the U.C.P.S., but there is a proper time for such Camps to be held, and for boys who can only attend one, I hope I have explained that the O.T.C. offers as many attractions at Camp as does the U.C.P.S. It certainly is hard work in the O.T.C., but the harder the work the more are the afternoons enjoyed. From the above remarks one must admit that the O.T.C. is healthier, i.e., from the sanitary point of view, and more enjoyable than any other similar Camp.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

W. H. V. NELSON.

Our Contemporaries.

WE acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the following :—The Salopian (2), The Blue (2), The Wellingtonian, The Eton College Chronicle (4), The Haileyburian, The Reptonian (2), The Edinburgh Academy Chronicle (2), The Working Man's Journal (2), The Cheltonian (2), The Rossallian (2), The Radleian, The Wykehamist (2), The Beaumont Review, The Malburian (2), The Pauline, The Cliftonian, The Carthusian, Brighton College Magazine, The Olavian, The Covian, Our Boys' Magazine, The Clavinian, The Alleynian, The Blundellian, Tonbridgean, The Meteor, The Johman, The Fettesian, The Carterarian, Stonyhurst Magazine, The Malvernian, St. Peter's School Magazine, The Felstedian, The Harrovian, The Eagle.

'THE ELIZABETHAN' CLUB.

THIS Club was founded in the year 1864, and consists of Old Westminsters. Its objects are to promote intercourse among Old Westminsters and to preserve the associations and further the interests and prosperity of the School. The subscription to the Club is 10s. 6d. per annum, or on the payment of £3 3s. all future subscriptions may be compounded for.

Old Westminsters who wish to join the Club should communicate with the Hon. Secretary, L. E. TANNER, Esq., 2 Little Dean's Yard, Westminster, S.W.

NOTICES.

ALL contributions to the October number of THE ELIZABETHAN should reach the Editor at 3 Little Dean's Yard, Westminster, not later than September 29th.

Contributions must be written on one side of the paper only.

Correspondents must enclose their names with contributions, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Back numbers are obtainable of the Editor, price 1s. each.

Subscribers are requested to notify any change of address to the Secretary, 3 Little Dean's Yard, Westminster.

The terms of subscription to THE ELIZABETHAN are as follows (payable in advance):—

ANNUAL (payment in advance).	.	.	£	s.	d.
TRIENNIAL	"	.	0	10	0
LIFE COMPOSITION	.	.	5	0	0
"	"	(after the age of 30)	4	0	0
"	"	( " 40)	3	0	0
"	"	" 50)	2	0	0

Subscriptions now due should be forwarded at once to J. SARGEANT, Esq., Little Dean's Yard, Westminster School, S.W. (not addressed 'The Treasurer').

The Editor is not responsible for the opinions of his contributors or correspondents.

Moreat.